

Vanguard Brokerage Services routes orders in exchange listed options to one or more market Participants with the objective of obtaining best execution; As detailed above, Vanguard Brokerage Services receives compensation for directing options order flow to specific market participants